CAFE DE L'BOWERY AT THE AU-DITORIUM.

The management takes pleasure in announcing that Simonds & Shields' Cafe De L'Bowery, the act over which there was some controversy about a week ago, and which cancelled its en-gagement without notice and unbe-known to the management, after it was in the town, and its baggage and scenery unloaded, will appear here positively on Monday next and fulfil their original contract. There are twelve characters introduced, and it is said to be one of the greatest laughing acts in vandeville. The act is owned by Simon & Shleids of New York, who were also the originators of High Life in Jail, and several other big laughing acts. All who were implicated in the cancellation of this act before have suffered from its ill effects, while the public are the only gainers. Mons. was in the town, and its baggage and scenery unloaded, will appear here public are the only gainers. Mons. Trebreh, the man who has made such a hit throughout Europe and Americal with his musical dining table, will so on hand for the first half of next week, and also two other first-class acts. Some of the very best motion pictures are being shown at this theater, including Imp, Bison, Selig, etc.

POLI'S THEATER.

Today is the last opportunity for Today is the last opportunity for Norwich theater goers to see the big show that is being presented at Poli's this week. Every act on this bill is meeting with success, and the saying around town is that it is the best yet. At last evening's performance Edmund Stanley & Co. were obliged to respond to a number of encores and the audience did not seem to be satisfied until the singers had to stop the audience did not seem to be satisfied until the singers had to stop from exhaustion. Flo Irwin still continues to please with her comedy playlet, and Bisset & Scott also are on the list of favorites. For next week Mr. Poll has arranged to present one of the largest vaudeville bills in the history of Norwich, consisting of six all-star feature acts, headed by the Boys in Blue, a company of 17 people that go through military tactics and manceuvres with remarkable rapidity. manceuvres with remarkable rapidity This act is educational as well as interesting. The three Weston sisters will be seen in a refined musical offering that is sure to be a winner. A comedy farce entitled The New Pupil, will be presented by the Three Richardsons. The story of the act is based on the mistaken identity theme—the comedy is bright, the dialogue with and a number of humans afficient of the state of and a number of humorous situations take place. Nolan & Wilson have a singing and talking act full of Irish comedy and wit that brings them up among the topnotchers. Floyd Mack will present a novel act and introduces executive danging power before second. will present a novel act and introduces eccentric dancing never before seen on the stage, while Paul Stephens completes this bill with a pole climbing act that is out of the ordinary. The above bill will put Poll's in the limelight of popularity, as it is the best that money can get. This afternoon is children's matinee, when each child attending will be presented with a souvenir with the compliments of Mr. Poll. Considerable interest is being taken in estimating the number of beans contained in the jar in the lob-by of the theater. The lady estimat-ing the nearest will be given the $25 hat that can now be seen in the winof Gotthelf & Co.

The City.

"The City," the last work that reached completion under the hand of Clyde Fitch, has proved the most successful of the plays of the late writer. The the latter part of last season, and on the opening night created a greater amount of enthusiasm than any play that was ever seen in New York. This was not due in the main to the fact that staid theater-goers were witness-ing the last play of this typical American writer, but on account of the vital, tremendous situation which brings the stirring second act to an overwhelming The City" will be the attraction at the Lyceum theater, New Lon-don, next Monday night,

An Irresponsible Client. The lawyer of a man named Tem bornino, who was being tried for theft in the Paris courts recently, pleaded that Tambornino was not quite ac-countable for his actions. This defense made the prisoner so angry that he leaned over the dock and knocked his lawyer flat on the floor of the court. The lawyer was not much hurt and rising to his feet, made use of his client's violence so cleverly that he secured an acquittal.

POETRY.

THE UNSEEN ARTIST. I stood in the gathering shadows. And looked to the West wwey. Where the hand of an unsen artist Was painting the close of day—

A strange and wonderful picture That filled my soul with awe, And made me think of the city No mortal ever saw.

Paint me, O, wonderful artist.
I cried, as the shadows came
And hid the marvelous glory
Of the distant hills affame.

Paint me the face of an angel; And lo, before my eyes Was the face of my sainted mother Who dwells in Paradise.

Paint me the face of a sinner,
When lo, in a moment had grown
The sad, pale face of a sinner,
And I knew it for my own.

Paint me the face of a sinner,
A darker shadow swept Down the hills and I thought in the darkness
The unseen artist wept.

I remember, I remember
The roses, red and white,
The violets and the lily cups—
Those flowers made of light!
The lilacs, where the robin built,
And where my brains of
The laburaum on his birthday— The laburnum on his birth. The tree is living yet!

I remember, I remember
Where I was used to swing.
And thought the air must rush as fresh
To swallows on the wing:
My spirit flew in feathers then
That is so heavy now,
And summer pools could hardly cool
The fever on my brow.

I remember, I remember
The fir trees dark and high:
I used to think their slender tops
Were close against the sky;
It was a childish ignorance.
But now 'tis little joy
To know I'm farther off from heave.
Than when I was a boy.
